

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE wedding of Miss Rosalie Fontaine Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Catesby Jones, to Mr. John Grant Armistead, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Armistead, was celebrated yesterday, November 11th, at 3:30 P. M. in St. Paul's Church, the Rev. Robert W. Forsyth officiating.

The altar and chancel of the church were massed with palms and lighted with myriads of candles. At the house, where a reception, to the bridal party only, was held after the ceremony, the halls and parlors were decorated with Southern smilax and yellow chrysanthemums. Professor Jacob Reinhardt directed the music, and the choir of St. Paul's sang the wedding choros.

The attendants included the maid of honor, Miss Lucy Newton Christian; the best man, Mr. Thomas S. Armistead; a charming group of bridesmaids—Miss Louise Shackelford Fontaine, of the University of Virginia; Miss Nancy Randolph Seiden, Miss Polly Robbins, Miss Fanny Anderson Hobson, Miss Nellie Price Morton, Miss Katherine Dabney Lancaster, Miss Emily Armistead, Miss Caroline Talbot Armistead, Mrs. James Jeffries Pollard—and the groomsmen—Mr. Stuart A. Seelye, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mr. John B. Knox, Jr., of Hartford, Conn.; Mr. Fontaine Jones, Mr. Pryor Lipscomb, Mr. Robert E. Peyton, Mr. John Randolph Tucker, Mr. W. S. Freeman, Mr. Conway Howard, Mr. Roy Meriwether Jones and Mr. Nelson Robbins.

The bride, gowned in white satin duchesse, with garniture of point lace and a tulle veil, carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and walked to the altar with her father, who gave her in marriage. The maid of honor was attired in corn-colored messaline trimmed with princess lace. The bridesmaids were in white, with touches of yellow and gold. Their flowers were white chrysanthemums for the maid of honor and yellow for the bridesmaids.

Mr. and Mrs. Armistead, after receiving the greetings and congratulations of friends, left for a wedding trip North. After December 1st they will be at No. 501 East Franklin Street. Guests from a distance at the wedding were Mr. Stuart A. Seelye, Mr. John B. Knox, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William B. Knox, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Waldrop, Jr., of Norfolk; Miss Katherine Minor Fontaine, Miss Louise Shackelford Fontaine and Miss Elizabeth Minor Fontaine, of the University of Virginia.

Archer—Randolph.
The wedding of Miss Nina Wheeler Randolph, daughter of the late Norman V. Randolph, to Mr. Peter Jefferson Archer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Archer, of Richmond, was celebrated yesterday evening, November 11th, in the home of the bride, No. 8 North Laurel Street, the Rev. Father D. N. Tarnsey, of Falls Church, Va., former pastor of St. Peter's Cathedral, this city, officiating.

The ceremony was witnessed only by the relatives and a few intimate friends of bride and bridegroom. Mr. William Roane Ruffin, of Petersburg, as best man, being the only attendant. House decorations were in palms and yellow and white chrysanthemums, the flowers being a gift from the Confederate veterans of Lee Camp Soldiers' Home, of which the bride's father was president for fourteen years. bride was gowned in ivory white satin trimmed with old point lace, and wore also her mother's wedding veil and diamonds. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums.

A small and informal, but exceedingly pleasant, reception followed the marriage. Then the bride and groom left to spend their honeymoon at Beechwood, in Louisa county. They will have their home at No. 115 East Cary Street when they return.

As a most cultivated musician and the possessor of many other accomplishments and attractions, Mrs. Archer has always been known as one of the handsomest and most popular young women in Richmond. Both she and Mr. Archer are descendants of old and famous Virginia families.

Ballard—Goodwin.
Invitations have been received in Richmond from the Rev. Edward I. Goodwin, a former rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, this city, for the marriage of his daughter, Margaret Lewis, to Mr. James W. Ballard, the wedding to be celebrated Tuesday evening, November 24th, in Zion Church, Fairfax, Va.

Walls—Mountcastle.
At 11 A. M. yesterday, Miss Mary Mountcastle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mountcastle, was married to Mr. James Edward Walls, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Walls, the ceremony being performed in Olivet Presbyterian Church, New Kent county, by the Rev. Calvin Stewart, D. D.

The church was decorated with chrysanthemums and evergreens. Mrs. John A. Moss, of Newport News, directed the music. Miss Carrie L. Jennings, of Richmond, was maid of honor, and Mr. Robert Walls, of Newport News, best man. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Binns, James Talley, Dr. J. R. Parker and Mr. Richard E. Mountcastle. Master Keys Barnes was ring-bearer, and Mary Moss, of Newport News, carrying a basket of pink roses and white carnations, the flower girl.

The bride, gowned in a tailored costume of blue cloth, with hat to correspond, and carrying Bride roses, entered with her maid of honor. The latter wore cream cloth, a picture hat and had a bouquet of cream white chrysanthemums. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Walls drove to Providence Forge and left for a Northern tour.

Du Val—Penick.
The wedding of Miss Evelyn Erie Penick to Mr. Raymond Burton Du Val was celebrated at 11 A. M. yesterday in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Jasper W. Shelton, of No. 211 South Third Street, the Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith, assisted by the Rev. Dr. R. J. Williamson, officiating.

The parlors were decorated with palms and ferns, and the wedding march played by Miss Mary S. Shelton. Miss Alice Lee Penick attended her sister as maid of honor, and Mr. Oscar C. Du Val, the groom's brother, was best man.

The bride entered with the maid of honor. She wore a traveling suit of blue, the groom's gift, a pearl brooch, hat and gloves to harmonize with her gown, and carried Bride's roses. The maid of honor had on old rose crepe de chine, a picture hat, and held a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

After their return from a Northern trip Mr. and Mrs. Du Val will reside at No. 3 East Clay Street.

Robben—Zastrow.
The wedding of Miss Clara Zastrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Zastrow, of Amelia, Va., to Mr. J. J. Robben, of Henrico county, was celebrated at 6:15 A. M. yesterday by the Rev. Father O'Reilly, of Sacred Heart Cathedral. Miss Lily Zastrow was maid of honor, and Mr. John Doran best man. Mr. and Mrs. Robben will spend some time with the bride's parents at Amelia, before returning to their home in Henrico.

Goodrich—Gresham.
Mrs. Henry K. Pollard, of No. 915 West Grace Street, announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Susan Gresham, to Mr. P. O. Goodrich, of Surry county.

The ceremony was quietly performed at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening in Mrs. Pollard's home, the Rev. Alfred Bagby, D. D., officiating. There were no attendants and no invitations issued. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich left at once for a wedding trip North. They will return to Richmond before going to their home in Surry.

Social at Monumental.
The annual meeting of the congregation of Monumental Church will be held in the lecture room to-night at 8:15 o'clock. If raining to-night the meeting will be postponed until Friday.

After reports have been made of the work of the various societies and departments of the church refreshments will be served, and the evening spent in social intercourse.

Mrs. Samuelson Entertains.
Mrs. Maxwell Samuelson, of No. 1134 West Avenue, entertained charmingly at bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Alfred Magill Randolph, of England.

Decorations in parlor and dining-room were white chrysanthemums and maidenhair ferns, the color scheme being developed throughout in green and white. The centerpiece for the table, an oblong chrysanthemums plaque fringed with ferns, was specially attractive.

Those present to meet Mrs. Randolph were Mrs. Albert F. Hunt, Mrs. Stewart Hume, Mrs. Withers Miller, Mrs. William H. Nelson, Mrs. C. C. Bartlett, Mrs. John G. Miller, Mrs. Edgar Leary, Miss Flossie Talbot, Mrs. William Palmer, Mrs. James Lee Shelton, Mrs. J. W. Young, Mrs. James T. Rutherford, Mrs. J. Clifford Miller, Mrs. M. S. McDonald and Mrs. J. C. Warren, Jr.

Miss Alice Taber English and Miss Grace Neal assisted the hostess in the dining-room.

In the evening the following members of the younger social set were Mrs. Samuelson's guest at cards: Misses Claire Smith, Jessie Evans, Lena Miller, Alice English, Grace Neal; Messrs. Ernest Allen, Fred Carrington, Walter Lafey, William Grigg and John S. Wendt, of Pittsburgh.

Emma Andrews Club.
The Emma Andrews Whist Club will meet to-morrow, Friday, afternoon, at 4 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Isaac Davenport, 510 West Franklin Street.

Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Beebe celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary very pleasantly with cards and dancing at the Langley, 511 East Franklin Street, on Tuesday evening.

An orchestra played throughout the evening and dancing was enjoyed from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe were most pleasantly remembered and congratulated. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. West, Mr. and Mrs. Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Haggerty, Mr. and Mrs. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Wortham, Mrs. Bigger, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Omohundro, Mrs. Morris, Misses Bigger, Snell, Mullins, Owens, Gant, Omohundro, McGuire, White, Downing, Messrs. Danderine

EVERYBODY CAN HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR NOW, and they don't have to wait weeks and months for results either. You will notice marked improvement after the very first application.

Danderine is quickly and thoroughly absorbed by the scalp and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities. It is pleasant and easy to use—simply apply it to the scalp and hair once a day until the hair begins to grow, then two or three times a week till desired results are obtained.

A lady from California writes in substance as follows: "I have been using your wonderful hair tonic for several months and at last I am now blessed with a wonderful lot of hair that was once over 4 inches in length; the hair is over 8 inches around."

Another from New Jersey: "After using stretch bottle I am happy to say that I have a piece of hair as anyone in New Jersey."

This Great Hair-Growing Remedy can now be had at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Free To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the Knoxville Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and the in silver or stamp to pay postage.
